1. Terms of Reference

1.1 Overview

The Housing Development Agency (HDA) is a national public housing development agency which reports to the Minister of Human Settlements and is established by an Act of Parliament (Act 23 of 2008). The HDA's legislative mandate promotes sustainable integrated communities by making well-located land and buildings available for the development of public housing and human settlements.

The HDA's legislative mandate is located within the industrial fields of construction, project management, civil engineering and procurement which makes it susceptible to the risks of sectoral complexities, financial loss, fraud and corruption. Construction industry is rated one of the most corrupt industries in the world.

To curb the implications of these industrial challenges, the HDA seeks to establish an Enterprise-Wide Risk Management Unit that will drive the creation of a risk-free environment by promoting sound governance and provide support in managing HDA's enterprise-wide risks.

2. Scope of Work

HDA is requesting quotations from the bidders to be appointed to assist in providing Professional Risk Management Services with the following scope of work:
