1. Introduction

The Housing Development Agency (HDA) is a national public development agency which promotes sustainable communities by making well located and appropriately planned land available for the development of human settlements. As its primary activity, the HDA assembles state, private and communal land and releases it for development. In addition, HDA provides project delivery support services to organs of state at local, provincial and national level. Informal settlements upgrading and project management services are a particular focus of the organisation.

2. Scope of Work
