SECTION A

1. Background

The Housing Development Agency (HDA) is a National Public Development agency which promotes sustainable communities by making well located and appropriately planned land available for the development of human settlement. As its primary activity, the HDA assembles state, private and communal land and releases it for development. In addition HDA provides project delivery support services to organs of state at local, provincial and national level. Informal settlements upgrading and project management services are a particular focus of the organisation.

2. Purpose and Objective

The Organisational Performance Management Unit of the HDA is tasked with Managing and Co-ordinating organisation wide efforts to inculcate a culture of performance management within the HDA. The unit develops standards, guidelines, procedures and policies all aimed at managing the organizational performance environment as well as ensuring alignment to the Government wide framework for managing programme performance information.

Performance Management does not exist in an operational vacuum. It exists as a component within the eco system of an organization, located within the broader operational framework, geared towards delivering on the mandate and strategy of the organization. Strategic and operational planning and reporting are the drivers of performance management within HDA and represent the starting point of all performance management activities within the organization.

To this end, the HDA seeks to appoint the services of a suitably qualified and experienced service provider to conduct training on strategic and operational planning in line with all regulatory prescripts, applicable internal HDA policies and global best practice for strategic and operational planning in the public service.

In order to provide this strategic and operational training, the appointed service provider will be required to develop training manuals and training material, as well as supporting tools such as inter alia templates, checklists and forms that relate to strategic and operational planning and reporting.

The strategic and operational planning and reporting training will be provided for 20 HDA employees and will take place at the Johannesburg head office.

3. Context for Strategic and Operational Planning within the HDA

Strategic Planning, Operational Planning, monitoring and reporting as well as budgeting in the Public Sector is governed by a number of legislative and policy frameworks. In addition, National Treasury has published a number of guidelines which set out how National, Provincial and Local Governments as well as public entities should plan, monitor and report performance. Among the key frameworks and guidelines that govern strategic management in the Public Sector are as follows:

- The Constitution of RSA (Section 92);
- The Public Finance Management Act of 1999;
- The Framework for Strategic Plans and Annual Performance Plans;
- The Framework for Managing Performance Information;
- The Government Wide Monitoring and Evaluation System.

The National Treasury Guidelines also apply to public entities as defined in the Public Finance Management Act of 1999.

Chapters 5 and 30 of the National Treasury regulations issued in terms of the PFMA require the Accounting Officer to provide the necessary legal basis for the implementation of this Framework and to support the implementation of the Framework for Managing Programme Performance Information.

The HDA along with other government institutions are required to inter alia perform the following tasks:

- Produce and table a Strategic Plan with a five-year planning horizon, outlining the planned sequencing of projects and programme implementation and associated resource implications and other prescribed information;
- Produce and table an Annual Performance Plan including forward projections for a further two years, consistent with the medium-term expenditure framework (MTEF) period, with annual and quarterly performance targets, where appropriate, for the current financial year and the MTEF;
- Identify a core set of indicators needed to monitor institutional performance;

- Adopt a quarterly reporting system, including submission of agreed information to executive authorities, the relevant treasury and Parliamentary portfolio committees.
- Ensure there is alignment of reporting between the Strategic Plans, Annual Performance Plans, budget documents and annual and quarterly reports.

4. Scope of Work

The scope of work for this assignment:

- Develop a training manual for strategic and operational planning customised to the specific requirements of the HDA
- Develop supporting tools to be used as part of the strategic and operational planning process such as templates, workbooks, checklists, forms, and any other supporting tool that will enhance strategic and operational planning and reporting in the HDA
- The training manual must contain the following minimum modules:

Module	Module Overview
Strategic Planning and Annual Performance Planning	The HDA is required to develop a five-year strategic plan and an Annual Performance Plan. A strategic plan sets out the strategic posture of an organization and articulates inter alia, strategic goals, objectives, priority programmes and is aligned to the Medium Terms Strategic Framework and delivery agreement. An annual Performance Plan sets out what the organization will do over a one year period, identifies performance indicators and annual and quarterly performance targets.
Business Unit Level Operational Planning	Each business unit within the HDA is required to develop an operational plan aligned to the Annual Performance plan and five-year strategic plan. The business unit operational plan sets out the performance targets and performance indicators for the business unit.

Reporting	The HDA is required to compile several reports during the performance management cycle, including an Annual Report, quarterly reports and a mid-term review. Each report must be supported with verifiable portfolio of Evidence per indicator.
Budget Development	The HDA is required to develop a budget in line with in line with National Treasury Strategic Plan and Annual Performance Plan framework. Business Unit level budgeting must align to budget programme structures.

Bidders are encouraged to incorporate additional modules that will enhance the overall end product

- The appointed service provider will be required to understand the HDA's operating environment to the extent that it impacts on strategic and operational planning and reporting, in order to customise the training material and supporting work tools.
- The training material developed must align to the HDA business processes as they relate to strategic and operational planning specifically, and organizational performance management generally.
- The training manual and supporting tools must be both in hard copy and electronic format. The electronic format must allow for future changes to be made.
- Bidders must submit a project plan with clear timelines and milestones.
